JARRETT AND ROSE RETURN FROM MAINLAND

Territorial and County Officials
Both Bring Back Ideas to Introduce Here

Reporting the finest vacation ever and showing it, too, William P. Jarrett, high sheriff, and Charles H. Rose, city and county sheriff, returned in the Wilhelm today from a three months' combined official, business and pleasure tour on the mainland.

The Honolulu officials were greeted at the dock today by a cordon of police, prison officials and friends and spent the morning shaking hands and answering questions about the states.

Rose says he has learned some "things" about traffic management and intends to gradually inaugurate in Honolulu some of the latest and most approved methods of the police in the large mainland cities.

When it comes to prisons, Jarrett says that he has many ideas and hopes to start some of them in the new territorial prison.

Together the Hawaii men saw most of the famous prisons of the United States, including San Quentin in California, Joliet, Sing Sing, The Tombs and the federal prison at Port Leavenworth, Kansas.

Mainland police and prison officials were most cordial, according to the visitors, and accorded them many courtesies, also asking with more than usual interest of the islands.

In New York City Rose and Jarrett discovered numbers of Hawaiian musicians whom they knew.

"There was Bill Holua and George Kaulaui, Ben Jones and Tom Hennessey, Henry Clark and Bob Kanwa and a lot of others and it certainly did us good to see how glad they were to see some one from Hawaii," said Rose.

"Yes, and they hung on to us so long that we nearly missed our boat to Boston," continued Jarrett. "They were bound to show us the town, and they did."

Two of these Hawaiian orchestras were in cafes and two in vaudeville shows, according to the returned travelers, who add that the East is "wild" over the native strains.

Seasickness Is Believed Cause Of Quick Death

Mrs. S. Hirayama Dies After Removal From Persia Maru;
Autopsy Reveals Nothing

Just what Mrs. S. Hirayama died of, if not of seasickness, is puzzling officials of the board of health, who performed an autopsy on the woman's body.

Mrs. Hirayama was a steamer passenger on the T. K. K. steamer Persia Maru, bound for Honolulu to meet her husband, who is said to live here. She was sick all the way over, and was removed to Queen's Hospital when the boat docked here Monday morning.

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon the woman died. Her body was removed to the territorial morgue and an autopsy performed which showed no traces of tuberculosis, which had been reported as the cause of her death. There were no traces of other disease.

Mrs. Hirayama came from Niigata, Japan, and left Yokohama July 20. She had been ill during the entire voyage and unable to retain anything on her stomach.

SHERMAN COMING HERE THURSDAY; SAILING FRIDAY

Radio advices received this morning from Capt. Hall of the U. S. Army transport Sherman, say she will arrive off port from Manila and Nagasaki Thursday afternoon, hour not given, weather permitting. The transport's position at 8 o'clock Monday night was 74 miles west of Honolulu.

The Sherman has 29 first-cabin and seven second-cabin passengers for Honolulu, five sacks of mail and 27 and a half tons of freight. There are no stowaways aboard. All the passengers coming here are insular government employees except one each of the U. S. army and navy.

Col. George S. Young is ranking officer and Maj. E. H. Humphrey commanding officer of troops on board. The Sherman, providing she arrives some time Thursday afternoon, as expected, will steam for San Francisco about Friday afternoon, taking all the passengers she has room for from Honolulu. There is a waiting list of a dozen persons at the quartermaster's office now, in addition to those booked.

The transport Bedford, now in port, will sail some time Friday for Newport News, Va., direct, by way of Panama Canal.

BRITON SACRIFICES LIFE TO SAVE HIS COMRADES

PARIS, France.—A young Briton was just about to throw a bomb when it accidentally slipped from his hand and fell in the midst of his comrades. In two seconds the deadly engine would explode and probably kill a number of men, as the lighted fuse was very short.

"Goodby, you chaps," shouted the man who had thrown the bomb. He flung his whole body on the horrible missile. Only a few pieces of him were left a moment later, but no one else was hurt.

AD CLUB LUNCH PROGRAM HOLDS FORTH PROMISE

Interesting Speakers Are to Be Heard, and Important Discussion

Thomas Watson, associated for many years with Alexander Graham Bell of Bell Telephone fame, he the principal speaker at the Ad Club luncheon Wednesday at the Alexander Young Hotel. Watson knows the telephone business from every angle, and much of the progress of the telephone industry is due to his efforts.

Consul-General R. Moro, of Japan will be another speaker. He has shown an interest in advertising the good things of Hawaii, and is expected to tell something of what he has found in that line during his stay in Honolulu. The musical feature of the day will be given by S. B. Miller, the tenor soloist.

On the program announcing the luncheon the Civic convention discussion is placed last, but according to Tom Sharp, acting secretary of the club, this will be one of the important topics at the luncheon. The committee will make a report on what arrangements have been made for the participation of the Ad Club in the Civic convention program at Hilo.

Promise Big Things, But Do They Know Big Things?

One of the Tests of their knowledge is what they are able to tell the Public through Paid Publicity.

If They Know what they are talking about they should be anxious to spread their views before the public in properly controlled and clear cut form.

Hit or Miss methods have no place with big men who use Paid Publicity.

MAIL ORDER METHODS

Mr. Herman Rosenthal, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, recently told the members of the American Ad Club one of the methods by which that company extended its trade. He said:

"We have a bureau whose duty it is to read, each week, the country newspapers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over these papers, and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper, we immediately flood that territory with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants all the time use their local paper."

A mosque, composed almost entirely of reinforced concrete, nearly all the materials of American origin, is being built in the Federated Malay States. Official figures show that from are more frequent on the coasts of Maine and New Hampshire than on any other parts of the coasts of the United States. A report from Ottawa states that Lord Curzon will succeed the Duke of Connaught as the Canadian viceroy in the fall.

Star-Bulletin Submarine Chase Paragraph Contest

INSTRUCTIONS

There are two sets of ships, one submarine set and one cruiser set—each set with words in them, and these are scattered throughout the advertisements printed in today's paper.

Each set, when properly arranged, forms a complete paragraph or statement. Arrange the words to suit yourself—just so the complete paragraph makes a readable statement on the subject selected for the week.

The subject for this week is "GOOD ROADS." And Wednesday's Star-Bulletin will state how many ships were in Tuesday's paper, so you may count them and thus be sure to get them all.

YOU MAY TURN IN ONLY ONE SET OF SHIPS, the submarines, which form one statement, or the cruisers, which form another statement, but both on the same subject.

And then hand in the set of ships from which you believe you have made the best statement.

Paste the ships in the squares on the official card—in their proper order—according to your selection.

You may use five additional words for each set, of your own choosing, if you find it necessary to make more complete sense, and these words must be written by you in these spaces wherever you consider an extra word necessary.

BUT YOU MUST USE ALL THE SHIPS of one kind, and you cannot omit any. It is advisable to use as few extra words as possible—because the contestant who arranges the best paragraph with the fewest extra words, will be declared winner.

This contest covers four Tuesday's issues—and the party making the best showing for the entire four weeks will be entitled to

$50.00 IN GOLD

All answers to each Tuesday's contest must be in the office of the Star-Bulletin not later than the following Monday.

No single individual is entitled to hand in more than one paragraph each week—or four paragraphs during the entire four weeks' contest.

You must get the official card from any one of the following advertisers in whose advertisement a ship appears:

Hollister Drug Co., Electric Shop, The Waterhouse Co., Benson, Smith & Co., Coyne Furniture Co., W. W. Dimond & Co., Lewers & Cooke, Smoot & Steinhauser, Ltd., Kershner Vulcanizing Co., McInerney Shoe Co., Sachs, M. McInerney, Fong Inn & Co., Trent Trust Co., Love's Bakery, The Waterhouse Trust Co.
